

Sues For a Divorce.

Peter Lantto Asks For Separation For Disertion.

Case Brings to Mind a Story.

The Woman in the Case Left Her Hubby About a Year Ago And Hasn't Showed Up Since.

Peter E. Lantto, through his attorney W. J. McDonald, has commenced action for divorce from his wife whose maiden name was Hilda Mary Buksa. This action of Lantto brings back to the minds of some of the persons who watched the proceedings which led up to this marriage in Judge Fisher's court about a year ago and they are exceedingly interesting. Lantto had Hilda arrested for stealing some $220 from him and before the case got to circuit court she persuaded him to marry her and thus have the case dismissed.

Hilda, it will be remembered, was a barmaid in a saloon on Fifth street and was in love with the bartender. Lantto came in the saloon on several occasions and became infatuated with the fair barmaid. She allowed him to pay her attention and finally agreed to marry him. With the understanding that she wanted to purchase wedding gowns and the like Lantto drew the $220 from his hard earned savings in the bank and gave it to her. She then had the nerve to tell him that she loved him not and he could whistle for his coin. But Lantto wasn't as easy as all that. He had her arrested for obtaining money under false pretenses and later the charge was made larceny.

Hilda at first thought that nothing could be proven, but after the examination and she was bound over for trial at circuit court she began to fear and then turned her attentions to Lantto once more. Now Lantto loved her notwithstanding her faults and after the examination they patched things up again and were married without further delay by the justice. Things looked rosy for a few hours after Lantto left the court room, but the bride soon disappeared and he has not seen her since. A day or two afterward it was discovered that the bartender was gone also. So was Lantto's $220, and the money, bartender and maiden fair have not put in an appearance up to the present.

Lantto has waited a whole year but no signs of his fair one has been discovered except that the pair are supposed to be somewhere in the west.

Under these circumstances he thinks he is entitled to a divorce.

Remarkable Rescue.

Mrs. Michael Curtin, Plainfield, Ill., makes the statement, that she caught cold, which settled on her lungs; she was treated for a month by her family physician, but grew worse. He told her she was a hopeless victim of consumption and that no medicine could cure her. Her druggist suggested Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption; she bought a bottle and to her delight found herself benefited from first dose. She continued its use and after taking six bottles, found herself sound and well, now does her own housework, and is as well as she ever was. Free trial bottles of this Great Discovery at D. T. Macdonald's, Calumet, and Belhumer's drug stores, Lake Linden. Large bottles 50 cents and $1.
